

California - Credit Report Release Addendum

Pursuant to California AB 22 (which will amend Section 1785.20.5 of Ca. Civil Code and add Chapter 3.6 to Part 2 of Division 2 of Ca. Labor Code, relating to employment) employers or prospective employers in California are prohibited from obtaining a consumer credit report for employment purposes unless the position of the person for whom the report is sought falls into one of several enumerated exemptions. As part of your employment or prospective employment, the Company has requested a credit report citing the following exemption for the position for which you are applying:

- a position in the California Department of Justice.
- a managerial position (defined as a position that qualifies for the executive exemption from overtime).
- a sworn peace officer or other law enforcement position.
- a position for which credit information is required by law to be disclosed or obtained.
- a position that involves regular access (other than in connection with routine solicitation of credit card applications in a retail establishment) to people's bank or credit card account information, social security number, and date of birth.
- a position in which the employee would be a named signatory on the employer's bank or credit card account, authorized to transfer money on behalf of the employer, or authorized to enter into financial contracts on behalf of the employer.
- a position that involves regular access to cash totaling $10,000 or more of the employer, a customer, or client during the workday.
- a position that involves access to confidential or proprietary information (defined as a legal "trade secret" under Civil Code 3426.1(d)).

I authorize without reservation any party or agency contacted by this employer to furnish the above-mentioned information. I hereby consent to your obtaining the above information from American Databank LLC at 110 16th Street 8th Floor Denver, Colorado 80202.
